Tournament at Marshall Hall.

More than 5,000 persons witnessed the tournament at Marshall Hall, in Charles county, yesterday. The steamer Charles Macalester made four trips during the day, stopping both ways at Alexandria, Fort Washington and Mt. Vernon to take on excursionists. On the morning trip the boat carried 1,500 passengers and on the second trip 2,000. More than 1,000 residents of Charles, Prince George's and Montgomery counties, in Maryland, and of Alexandria, Fairfax, Clarke and the adjoining counties of Virginia were in attendance. The Maryland visitors came by the county roads, nearly 500 of their teams being drawn up around the tilting course and lined along the fences. J. B. O'Shaughnessy, of Fairfax, was herald, and Geo. W. Ferguson, of Alexandria county, was one of the judges. John H. Klob, of Roslyn, Baltimore county, carried off the honors. At the coronation and ball last night Mr. Klob crowned Miss Emily Teresa Mudd, of Bel Alton, Charles county, as Queen of Love and Beauty. W. L. Clark, Virginia, named Miss Venable, of Washington, as first maid of honor and "Jack" S. Blandford, of Prince George's county, who won third prize, named Miss Sower, of Washington, as second maid of honor. Lucien D. Love, of Maryland, who won first prize at River View last Tuesday, won fourth prize yesterday. William L. Harron, of Washington, won fifth prize.

That Alexandria Supper.

The democrats of Alexandria set their brethren in other sections of Virginia a most excellent example, Tuesday night, when they held a "love feast." The supper was arranged for by friends of Senator Martin, who had voted for him in the primary, but every democrat in the city was invited to be present, and a large portion of the gathering was composed of men who had supported Governor Montague. The reports of the supper indicate that it was a most enjoyable event, at which harmony and good fellowship prevailed to a marked degree.

Democrats throughout the State should follow the wise course indicated by those of Alexandria. The primary election is passed and its results are unalterable. Whatever of heartburnings it left should be obliterated as soon as possible.

The Times-Dispatch expressed the opinion yesterday that there was no likelihood of the republicans carrying Virginia at any time in the near future. Such a contingency will never arise if the democrats of the State manifest everywhere the fraternal spirit shown by those of Alexandria. And the campaign was waged about as warmly there as in any town in Virginia.—[Richmond Times-Dispatch.]

Police Court.

[Justice Julius Pelton presiding.]
The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Henry Wells, colored, arrested by Officers Bell and Patterson charged with being drunk in the street, was dismissed.

Rose Kitts, colored, arrested by Officers Ferguson and Arrington charged with assaulting Ida Fuller, was fined $5. Bessie Keys, colored, arrested by the same officers charged with being a party to the offense, was dismissed.

Howard Berry, colored, arrested by Officers Beach and Allen as a suspicious character, was dismissed.

Mary Williams, colored, arrested by the same officers charged with abusive language, was fined $5.

Clarence Grady, colored, arrested by Lieut. Smith charged with assaulting Nat. Phillips with a brick, was fined $10.

Ida Fuller and Percy Beal, arrested by Officer Ferguson charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, were fined $5 each.

Preparing for Improvements.

The Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company is at work on the improvements on the property recently acquired by it on the east side of Union street, between Queen and Princess. The dock adjoining the same has been dredged and the piles for the new pier have arrived, as well as the iron work for the bridge which is to extend across Union street to the other buildings used by the company. The old brick structure on the east is to be metamorphosed and used in conjunction with the receipt and shipment of fertilizer.

The season is now on and for several weeks all the Alexandria plants will be kept busy. This industry has expanded wonderfully in late years, and from all indications it will continue to do so.

Pleasant Weather.

The weather yesterday and during most of last night was sultry, and this morning there were indications of rain. The heavens, however, soon became clear when a stiff northwesterly breeze set in which lowered the temperature considerably.

Nineteenth years ago tonight a muffled rumbling sound was heard, followed by a fall in temperature. A few seconds later the vibrations of an earthquake were felt, lasting about thirty seconds, which extended over a large portion of the United States. The city of Charleston, S. C., passed through a terrible experience, while people in Alexandria and many other places were more or less terrified.

Submerged in Fertilizer.

Wiley Davis, colored, an employee at the works of the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company, was painfully injured late yesterday afternoon by the caving in of a bank of fertilizer. He was as speedily as possible extricated from his perilous position, when it was found that his injuries were principally on the hips. The ambulance was summoned and Davis was removed to the Alexandria Hospital where he received immediate attention.

The schooner Ruth and Ellen, loaded with lumber by H. K. Field & Co., has sailed for Rock Point.

Mr. Aubrey T. Courtney and Miss Flora A. Nagel were quietly married in Washington last night. The newly married couple later left for Laurel, Md., where they will reside. The bride, who is a granddaughter of Mrs. Annie E. Smith, was tastefully gowned in blue tulle silk, with hat to match.

Funerals.

The funeral of Chas. H. Jett, whose sudden death occurred late Monday evening, took place this afternoon from the residence, 826 Duke street. Rev. Dr. Fisher, of the Baptist Church, conducted the services.

The funeral of the late James Auld took place from the residence of his brother, Mr. George Auld, in Fairfax county, this morning. The interment was made in the family lot nearby. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Landstreet, and the pallbearers were friends of the deceased who lived in the neighborhood.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Fannie E. Hill, widow of Dr. J. C. Hill, took place at noon today from her late home, Mount Wellington, near Accotink, in Fairfax county. The services were conducted by Rev. Everard Meade and the interment was in the family lot near Pollock Church.

A Boom in Pans.

A second-hand dealer in this city yesterday opened an invoice of several hundred tin pans of a variety useful to housekeepers and of a substantial make. They had originally been manufactured for the government, but, for some reason, were not used. The dealers offered them at the inducing price of two for twenty-five cents, and in an incredibly short space of time the stock was materially depleted. The store this morning was besieged by many anxious purchasers, and before noon all the supply had become exhausted. Men, women and children—some from the rural districts—were seen on the streets with a pan against each side, suggestive of the shields of the ancients. It is said that many persons sought policy shops and risked money on the "pan row."

St. Mary's Academy.

Tuesday, September fifth, this prominent educational institution will re-open for its thirty-seventh year of school work in this city. With a corps of experienced and capable teachers and a building commodious and fully equipped with all modern school furnishings, as well as with all that tends to the development of the aesthetic. St. Mary's is prepared to keep up the reputation of the past as a home of culture wherein the young receive not only a thorough, practical and comprehensive English education, but also that moral training and social refinement which can only come from those who, consecrated to the noble work of teaching, love it for the sake of the good that can be done to the precious souls entrusted to their care.

But St. Mary's is not satisfied with being all that she has been in the past; in education more than any where else the tendencies of the age are for progress, and the Sisters of the Holy Cross have ever been progressive. For this reason several of the teachers of St. Mary's Academy attended during the past two months the Summer Institute held at the celebrated institution of learning, St. Mary's Academy, Notre Dame, Indiana. They have returned ready to put into the workings of their school the advanced ideas of the best educators, hence parents desirous of giving their children the highest advantages, need not go outside the city to seek them.

In St. Mary's Academy the common branches as well as the studies of the academic department are imparted according to the most approved methods. The music department, under the direction of teachers of experience and ability, is considered one of the most important in the school. Instruction in vocal music and on the piano, organ, violin and other stringed instruments is imparted with a pains-taking earnestness that soon makes of the youngest professional musicians.

This year the faculty will introduce a special business department where commercial arithmetic, bookkeeping, stenography, typewriting and Palmer method of business writing will be taught.

There will also be a resident physical culture teacher at the school to give the entire student body daily instruction in the all important art of physical development.

Students not in attendance at the school are admitted to the music or business departments, or they may pursue a special course. Miss Price, the teacher of physical culture, will also receive pupils for private instruction in the art.

Parents desirous of information regarding terms and other matters of importance are invited to call or send for a catalogue. The tuition in all the departments is very reasonable.

Infectible Territory.

According to the marine hospital service Alexandria is in what the officials of that service would call infectible territory, so far as yellow fever is concerned. The interstate quarantine regulations require that a person from infected territory shall not be allowed within infectible territory until after the expiration of six days from their departure from infected localities and to permit travel detention camps are provided where persons may spend this period, at the end of which they are given certificates that permit them to go where they will.

The marine hospital officials say that infectible territory for yellow fever may be described as all that part of the United States south of a line drawn from the Atlantic coast through Washington to El Paso, Texas, with certain exceptions, which are given by States. The infectible territory in Virginia is that portion of the State lying east and south of a line passing through Charlottesville, N. C., Lynchburg, Va., and continued in a northeasterly direction through Charlottesville and Alexandria, Virginia.

Twenty-nine cases of typhoid fever have been reported in Richmond during August.

Bold Robbery.

A burglary, unique for the daring and success with which it was carried through, took place Tuesday night at "Nirvana," the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bonner, at Stafford, Conn. The burglars carried away bodily an 800-pound safe, which held about all of Mrs. Bonner's diamonds, jewels and rare old jewelry, as well as $150 in cash. Mrs. Bonner estimates the value of the stolen jewels at $18,000. She declares that many of the gems have a sentimental value that is incalculable in figures. They include gifts from her late husband, James Joseph Alexander, who was a noted steamship owner, and from his father, who practically owned the Pacific Mail Steamship Company and was its head for many years. Many family jewels and heirlooms of the Alexander family were stolen. Much of this belonged to Jerome Alexander, Mrs. Bonner's son, who is soon to attain his majority, and her daughter, Miss Alexander. The heavy safe containing the jewelry was carried from the second-story hallway of the house. The yard was full of dogs, and the doors of the sleeping rooms were ajar, but the burglars were not detected.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some sausage meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one twenty-five cent bottle cured the three of us." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
